INTERVIEW SUMMARY A

SIR:

Applicants wish to thank the Examiner for the courtesies extended to the undersigned during the telephone interview.

The Examiner withdrew the 112, second paragraph rejection of claim 62. Also, Applicants addressed the 112, second paragraph rejection of claims 66-67 in the accompanying response and have amended the claim to generically recite "an expendable" which may correspond to either consumables which are consumed or components which wear during usage. The discussion to generically define and clarify the usage of consumables and components was favorably received by the Examiner during the interview.

Applicants also discussed the subject matter defined by claim 67 with respect to one example of the specification at page 14, lines 21+ as set forth in the accompanying response and the comments were favorably received by the Examiner with respect to definiteness and patentability over the prior art of claim 67. In addition, the Examiner and the undersigned discussed prior art teachings, motivation for a prima facie rejection and official notice as set forth in the response which accompanies this interview summary with respect to claims 62, 69, 70, and/or 72.

Serial No. 10/006,693
PDNO. 10012626-1
Interview Summary A

If the claims are not allowed, the Examiner and undersigned discussed possible issuance of a non-final action with respect to providing objective support of the motivation for a proper prima facie rejection and identifying specific prior art teachings for the rejections wherein the Office relied upon the taking of judicial notice or otherwise did not identify teachings relied upon by the Office as discussed in further detail in the accompanying response. The Examiner indicated that the request for a non-final Action would be considered.

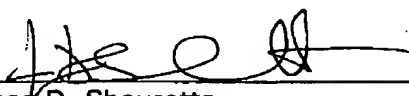

The Examiner also indicated that the newly added method claims of the response and which correspond to the apparatus claims would be considered and not restricted from the present application.

The Examiner is requested to phone the undersigned if the Examiner believes such would facilitate prosecution of the present application. The undersigned is available for telephone consultation at any time during normal business hours (Pacific Time Zone).

Respectfully submitted,

Robert Sese et al.
